How to Return Your Application

The Tools for School Expo is a back-to-school event designed to provide students from qualifying low-income families with backpacks full of essential school supplies at no cost. The program serves kindergarten through 12th grade students living in Newaygo County or attending school in Newaygo County for the 2020-2021 academic year. Once your application has been processed, we will send you an approval or denial letter informing you of your application status.
